Environmental Design Consultants - Landscape Planning Guide

"There are few opportunities in life for you to create spaces that reflect your unique personality and life style. The home environment is sacred ground that can and should provide a refuge of self expression."

Your Visual Ideas

On the grid below, draw a rectangle that represents your home on your lot. Roughly indicate with outlines or circles your personal ideas of the general landscape you desire. Don't worry about being exact or even artistic, we just want an idea of your vision.
